FOREWORD TO THE NORTHERN SYDNEY

ABORIGINAL SERVICES DIRECTORY

The Northern Sydney Aboriginal Area Social Plan was launched in September 2000 and was endorsed by the Metropolitan Local Aboriginal Land Council. The plan was a project of the Northern Sydney Planning Co-ordination Forum (NorthPlan) and was co-ordinated by a working group consisting of local Councils and a number of State and Commonwealth Government Departments. The plan covers the 11 local Government areas in Northern Sydney (Willoughby, Lane Cove, Hornsby, Ryde, Warringah, Manly, Pittwater, North Sydney, Ku-ring-gai, Mosman and Hunters Hill).

One of the projects identified in the Aboriginal Social Plan was the development of an Aboriginal Services Directory. Funding was made available by the Department of Community Services for the compilation of the directory.

Hornsby Shire Council, auspice of the project, strategically enlisted the services of the University of Western Sydney to find a suitable project worker through its Summer Research Program. Hornsby Shire Council has undertaken to update this service directory electronically on an annual basis. This ensures that Recommendation 6.1 of the social plan “that a strategy be developed to ensure that the database of services and networks is maintained on an ongoing basis” is carried out.

Ms Glenda Simon, an inspiring and valued Aboriginal woman with vast experience, expertise and knowledge of the Aboriginal culture developed the service directory as part of her Aboriginal Studies graduate program. Ms Leonne Brown, a member of the Northern Beaches Aboriginal Community and former Liaison Officer with the Human Rights & Equal Opportunities Commission, put the finishing touches to the Directory. Both Glenda and Leonne were supported by Hornsby Shire Council staff and dedicated members of the working group to produce the first comprehensive and useful Aboriginal Services Directory in Northern Sydney Network..

To ensure that the service directory is accessible to its target group, the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in the Northern Sydney Network, this directory has been produced and made available in both electronic and hard copy.

Acknowledgment is given to the following people for their significant contribution for making this Service Directory available to the Northern Sydney community:

- Ms Leonie Prater, Director, Partnerships and Planning, North Sydney Department of Community Services – Director, Partnerships and Planning, Leonie Prater
- Mr Larry Trudgett, Aboriginal CPO
- Ms Tracy Morgan, Generalist CPO
- Ms Coralie Nichols, Manager Community Services Branch, Hornsby Shire Council
